About the ASA: The American Sociological Association (ASA), founded in 1905, is a non-profit membership association dedicated to advancing sociology as a scientific discipline and profession serving the public good. ASA seeks to stimulate and improve research, teaching, and discussion, and to encourage cooperative relations among those engaged in the scientific study of society.

Any individual interested in these objectives is eligible for membership in the ASA. All members receive a printed copy of the newsletter Footnotes. All members receive online access to all (non-section) ASA journals, ASA Job Bank, and a subscription to the TRAILS online database of teaching resources as a benefit of membership. Regular, student, high school and associate membership includes one printed journal. Members also receive discounts on Annual Meeting registration, ASA publications and merchandise, workshops, and other member services. To join online, see www.asanet.org.

Membership is on a calendar year basis (January 1-December 31).

- Applications received before October 1, 2018, will become effective for the 2018 calendar year.
- Those received on or after October 1, 2018, will be processed for the 2019 calendar year.

6. Section Memberships. All ASA members with interest in special fields of sociology may join Sections of ASA. Sections publish occasional newsletters and sponsor program sessions during the Annual Meeting. Section dues are in addition to the membership dues. Circle the dues amount for each section desired. (You must be a current ASA member to join Sections.)

7. JSTOR Access. ASA members receive free access to the online JSTOR archival database of ASA journals (currently American Sociological Review, Contemporary Sociology, Contexts, Journal of Health and Social Behavior, Social Psychology Quarterly, Sociological Methodology, Sociological Theory, Sociology of Education, and Teaching Sociology). In 2018, JSTOR will include issues published in 2015 and earlier. For additional information on JSTOR, see www.jstor.org.
8. Accessibility Services. Check here to receive information on accessibility services at the Annual Meeting and other ASA events  ❑.
