

Section on Teaching and Learning in Sociology
Bylaws
Amended 1981, 1996, 1997, 2001, 2010, 2013

ARTICLE 1: NAME, PURPOSE, AND GOALS

Section 1. The name of this section shall be the Section on Teaching and Learning in Sociology. The purpose of the Section on Teaching and Learning in Sociology shall be to facilitate within the discipline of sociology a culture and a method that pursues, values, and rewards excellence in teaching and which promotes student learning and the scholarship of teaching at the undergraduate, graduate, and secondary levels.

Section 2. The goals of the Section include:

- (a) Promoting the development of a network of teacher scholars in sociology who exchange information, ideas, expertise, and research which supports the advancement of teaching and student learning in the discipline.
- (b) Bringing sociologists more fully into the national dialogue on education at all levels by addressing issues that shape it from a distinctly sociological perspective.
- (c) Facilitating excellence in teaching at all levels through the promotion of:
 - (1) The professional development and advancement of sociology teachers.
 - (2) The development of scholarship on teaching and learning at all levels.
 - (3) The recognition of distinguished contributions through the Hans O. Mauksch award.
 - (4) The development of a network of teacher-scholars.
 - (5) The creation of opportunities to share successes and profile best practices.
 - (6) The teaching of sociology outside of, as well as within, the classroom.
 - (7) Assessment of teaching and learning in sociology.
 - (8) Attention to teaching and learning within the American Sociological Association.
- (d) To accomplish these goals through meetings, workshops, special projects, publications, and support of sociology faculty.

ARTICLE II: OFFICERS

Section 1. The Section officers shall be a Chairperson, a Chairperson-Elect, a Secretary-Treasurer, a Past Chairperson, and nine (9) elected representatives to Section Council. Officers shall not be re-elected or appointed to the same office for consecutive terms (See Article II, Section 3).

Section 2. Section Council shall consist of those fourteen (14) positions named in Article II, Section 1. Each Council member shall have one (1) vote; the Chairperson shall preside at Council meetings. Council shall meet yearly, preferably semi-annually. Council members must maintain yearly ASA and Section memberships throughout their tenure in office. If either membership lapses, Council member must vacate his or her office and Chairperson will nominate to Council a person to fill the unexpired term.

Section 3. In the case of inactivity or inappropriate activity such action shall require approval of two-thirds of the Council members. The Council is vested with the power to carry out all necessary operations of the Section. The interim officer so designated may be any member of the Section including a member already holding another office or membership on the Council. The Council shall call for the election of a replacement for this interim officer during the regular annual election except in the case of recovery from incapacity by the original council member. The term of office of the elected replacement shall be designated as the remainder of the term of the vacated office. In the case of death, resignation, incapacity, inactivity, or inappropriate activity on the part of the Chairperson, the Chairperson-Elect shall assume the functions of the Chairperson as an interim officer. In the case of inactivity or inappropriate activity of the Chairperson such action shall require approval of two-thirds of the Council members.

SECTION 9. Any action taken by a Section officer or by Section Council may be brought for a review vote of the Section membership by a petition of 25% of the members or by 100 Section members, whichever is less, presented to the Section Chairperson. If a vote is asked of the entire Section membership, the results, judged by majority cast, shall be binding. Such a vote must take place within one month after the petition is received by the Section Chairperson.

ARTICLE IV: MEMBERSHIP

SECTION 1. Membership in the Section is open to all members of the American Sociological Association. Elected Section officers and committee members shall be drawn from the members of the American Sociological Association who have voting privileges.

ARTICLE V: DUES

SECTION 1. Dues shall be set by Section Council to cover the operation of the Section in accord with the requirements of the American Sociological Association. In addition, with the approval of Section Council, members of the Section shall be assessed as necessary to carry out any programs or activities undertaken by the Section, to the limits established by ASA.

ARTICLE V: ELECTIONS AND VOTING

SECTION 1. The elections of the Section shall be carried out in accordance with the American Sociological Association guidelines and coordinated with the schedule of the American Sociological Association.

ARTICLE VII: SECTION COMMITTEES

SECTION 1. Nominations Committee, appointed by Chairperson-Elect (See Article III, Section 2), and approved each year by Section Council (See Article III, Section 7) when it convenes at the annual meeting of the ASA or by e-mail/mail/online voting within one month following the annual meeting. Membership on the Nominations Committee shall represent two-year colleges, four-year colleges, and universities. In addition to three appointed members, the Past Chairperson shall serve as Chairperson of the Nominations Committee. The purpose of this committee shall be to nominate and coordinate the election of Section officers for the following year.

SECTION 2. Program Committee, appointed by Chairperson-Elect (See Article III, Section 2) approved each year by Section Council (See Article III, Section 7) when it convenes at the annual meeting of the ASA or by e-mail/mail/online voting within one month following the annual meeting. The Section Chairperson-Elect shall serve as Chairperson of the Program Committee. The Committee shall have at least three additional members, representing two-year colleges, four-year colleges and universities. The purpose of the committee shall be to organize the Section Day Program for the following year's convention.

SECTION 3. Publications Committee, appointed by Chairperson-Elect (See Article III, Section 2), approved by Section Council (See Article III, Section 6 7) when it convenes at the annual Meeting of the ASA or by e-mail/mail/online voting within one month following the annual meeting. Members shall serve two years with their appointment beginning immediately following their approval by Council. The Publications Committee shall include three elected members, representing two-year colleges, four-year colleges, and universities. Members representing two- and four-year colleges will be appointed in odd years and members representing universities will be appointed in even years. In addition to the three members mentioned, the Chairperson-Elect shall appoint a person who has been a member of the Publications Committee during the previous year for a two year term as chairperson of the Publications Committee. The Newsletter Editor(s) shall serve as an Ex-Officio members of the Publications Committee. In the case of multiple editors, one shall serve as Ex-Officio member of the Publications committee. The purpose of this committee shall be to recommend to Section Council candidates for Section Newsletter Editor(s), to serve as consultants to the Editor(s), and to keep the Editor(s) and the Council apprised of needs in the areas of dissemination and publication.

SECTION 4. Membership Committee, appointed by Chairperson-Elect (See Article III. Section 2 7), and approved by Section Council (See Article III, Section 6) when it convenes at the annual meeting of the ASA or by e-mail/mail/online voting within one month following the annual meeting. Members shall serve for two years with their appointment beginning immediately following approval by Council. The Membership Committee shall include three elected members, representing two-year colleges, four-year colleges, and universities. Members representing two- and four-year colleges will be appointed in odd years and members representing universities will be appointed in even years. In addition to these three members, the Chairperson-Elect shall appoint for a two year period the as Chairperson of the Membership Committee a person who served on the committee during the previous two years. The purpose of the committee shall be to seek and encourage new Section memberships and to advise Chairperson on ways to meet the needs and expectations of current membership.

SECTION 5. Awards Committee, appointed by Chairperson-Elect (See Article III, Section 7), and approved each year by Section Council (See Article III, Section 6) when it convenes at the annual meeting of the ASA or by e-mail/mail/online voting within one month following the annual meeting. Members shall serve two years, with their appointment beginning immediately following Council approval. The Awards Committee shall include three elected members, representing two-year, four-year colleges, and universities. In addition to the three members mentioned, the Chairperson-Elect shall appoint for a two year term as Chairperson of Awards Committee a person who has been a member of the Committee during the previous two years. The purpose of the Committee shall be to recommend award policies to Section Council, to issue calls for award nominees for the following year via the Newsletter and other suitable means, and to recommend proposed award winners for the following year to Council. Preference for the HOM award will be given to those nominees who are section members. It shall be the responsibility of the Awards Committee Chairperson to notify award winners well in advance of annual ASA meeting so the winners can plan to be present to receive the award and to work with the Section Chairperson in arranging a suitable awards ceremony.

SECTION 6. Cooperative Initiatives Committee, appointed by Chairperson-Elect (see Article III. Section 7) and approved by Section Council (See Article III, Section 7) when it convenes at the annual meeting of the ASA or by e-mail/mail/online voting within one month following the annual meeting. Members shall serve for two years with their appointment beginning immediately following Council approval. The membership should include members from two-year colleges, four-year colleges, and universities and should include at least one graduate student. Number of members should range from 6 – 10 to ensure contact across various internal and external groups. The goal of this committee is to span boundaries within the Association and to other organizations who share our concerns for education and scholarship on teaching and learning, establishing relationships for communication, programming, research, and advocacy.

SECTION 7. Other committees shall be selected by the Chairperson with the approval of the Council or by the Council on an ad hoc basis. All committees shall have representation from two-year colleges, four-year colleges, and universities. Section members not employed in one of the three institutional settings may be nominated to represent one of the three so that they may serve on any Section committee. Committee memberships shall be open to all Section members, including those serving as Section officers.

SECTION 8. All committee Chairs must submit to Section Council an annual report summarizing the past year's activities and plans for the future and noting any recommendation requiring Council approval. It is the obligation of all newly appointed committee chairpersons to obtain files and records from past chairpersons and, in turn, to pass these on to their successors. These files and records should contain information on such things as important deadlines which must be met and key contact persons within Section and ASA, correspondence on such matters as problems facing the Committee and on-going projects and policies adopted by the committee to facilitate its work.

ARTICLE VIII: AMENDMENTS OF BYLAWS

SECTION 1. Following Council approval, by majority vote (see Article III, Section 7), the Section By-laws can be amended by mail ballot to the Section membership. Amendment requires a majority of those votes actually cast.

SECTION IX: DEFINITIONS

SECTION 1. Admitting that ambiguity and inadequacy abounds in trying to define the three main educational affiliations represented by the Section membership, the Section shall subscribe to the following definitions: "two-year college" shall be understood to mean a post-secondary institution which supports a Sociology or Social Science Department and which awards an A.A. degree; "four-year college" shall be understood to mean a post-secondary institution which supports a Sociology Department and which awards only an undergraduate degree in sociology; "university" shall be understood to mean a post-secondary institution which supports a Sociology Department and which awards both undergraduate and graduate level degrees in sociology. In general, a person's educational affiliation is judged in terms of the highest degree awarded by the department or program in which that person has their primary appointment. If the program or department with which an individual is affiliated offers no degrees in sociology, their affiliation may be judged in terms of the Carnegie classification of the whole institution. For persons without an academic affiliation, note Article VII, Section 7.
