Introduction to the Theory and Practice of Structural Equation Modeling (co-sponsored by the Inter-university Consortium for Political and Social Research and the ASA Section on Methodology) Session 2, Friday, August 10, 8:30 a.m.-12:30 noon Military, Concourse Level
Ticket required for admission. Fees: $75 general registrants, $60 Methodology Section members, $50 graduate students Kenneth A. Bollen, University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill Peter M. Bentler, University of California-Los Angeles The seminar provides an overview of structural equation models without using matrix algebra. This session will provide an historic perspective on these procedures and explain their relation to the more familiar techniques of regression and factor analysis. It will present examples of the three major types of structural equation models and reveal the logic behind the estimation process. The seminar will also demonstrate the use of the computer software, EGS 3.0, to estimate these models and illustrate how to interpret the output from this program.

Intermediate Topics In Structural Equation Modeling (co-sponsored by the Inter-university Consortium for Political and Social Research and the ASA Section on Methodology) Session 4, Friday, August 10, 1:30-4:30 p.m. Military, Concourse Level
Ticket required for admission. Fees: $75 general registrants, $60 Methodology Section members, $50 graduate students Kenneth A. Bollen, University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill Peter M. Bentler, University of California-Los Angeles The afternoon session assumes elementary knowledge of matrix algebra and will present a matrix formulation of the major types of structural equation models and present estimators and tests for such models. Various goodness-of-fit indices and their properties will be reviewed. It will also introduce the application of Lagrangian Multiplier, Wai, and Likelihood Ratio tests for imposing or removing restrictions on parameters and for empirical means of respecifying models. The seminar will illustrate these topics with examples estimated with EGS 3.0.

Computer Analysis of Qualitative Data Session 17, Saturday, August 11, 3:00 p.m.-12:00 noon Military, Concourse Level
Ticket required for admission. Fees: $20 Kathleen Carley, Carnegie-Mellon University A computer assisted approach for comparing knowledge (perceptions, attitudes, beliefs, meanings) across individuals and groups, for determining what knowledge is “social”, and for looking at changes in such knowledge and implications of this change for the society or groups will be presented. Using the computer, verbal protocols (such as interviews or excerpts from journals or books) can be coded so as to extract not only what “concepts” are present, but also the relationships between these concepts. This procedure generates a “map” of the knowledge expressed in the verbal protocol. Maps from two or more verbal protocols can be examined visually to locate qualitative differences. Alternatively, computer procedures (which will be described) can be used to quantitatively measure the degree of similarity and difference in two or more verbal protocols. Examples will be drawn from the following areas: (1) comparison of expert and non-expert knowledge, and (2) evolution of differences and similarities in the perceptions of a social role by members of a group. Finally, it will be demonstrated that qualitatively based data such as this on the differences and similarities in shared knowledge, perceptions, culture, etc., can be used in conjunction with other data on the group (demographic changes, social structure, or presence of an “innovative idea”) to explore the potential for change in the group or society in question via simulation.

Qualitative Interviewing Session 48, Saturday, August 11, 2:30-5:30 p.m. Military, Concourse Level
Ticket required for admission. Fees: $15 Robert S. Weiss, University of Massachusetts-Boston The seminar will cover: (a) developing an initial interview guide from an accounting scheme, (b) establishing a partnership with a respondent in which the respondents act as field observers of themselves; (c) the types of data provided by respondents and how to obtain specific types; (d) judging the quality of data while the interview situation; and (e) helping respondents provide useful data. A brief demonstration interview will be conducted. If time permits, issues of analysis and reporting will be discussed.

Event History Analysis Session 76, Sunday, August 12, 8:30 a.m.-12:20 p.m. Military, Concourse Level
Ticket required for admission. Fees: $15 Lawrence L. Wu, University of Wisconsin-Madison Nancy Brandon Turna, Stanford University This seminar is an introduction to the analysis of event history data. Topics include data structures for event histories and time varying covariates, right and left censoring, exploratory methods, proportional hazard models, time dependent and testing. Seminar assumes knowledge of multiple regression, inference, and basic statistical inference. Knowledge of the logistic regression model helpful but not required. No prior knowledge of event history models or methods assumed.

Study of the Life Course Issues, Problems and Exemplars Session 120, Sunday, August 12, 2:30-4:20 p.m. Military, Concourse Level
Ticket required for admission. Fees: $15

Didactic Seminars

Didactic seminars are designed to keep sociologists abreast of recent scholarly trends and developments. Experts considered to be at the forefront of a given field are invited by the Program Committee to conduct these sessions.

Seminar speakers will present materials to explain specialized developments within their topic areas. Seminars are scheduled for two, three or four hours. Please see the listing below for session details and brief seminar descriptions provided by the speakers.

Attendance at each Didactic Seminar is limited to 50, and pre-paid registration is required. Seminar fees are $15-20 (except pre-convention Sessions 2 and 4), and all persons registering for seminars must also be paid registrants for the Annual Meeting. Those already enrolled should have received tickets with their name badges. Those who did not reserve in advance but who wish to attend should check at the Tickets Desk for possible openings.

No on will be admitted to the seminar room without a paid reservation; tickets will be collected at the door.
Area Studies Seminars

Area Studies Seminars will explore major social trends in four critical geographic regions of the world. All four regions highlighted in this year’s program have been, and still are, the subject of intense interest by the American public and news media and are a source of continuing discussion and debate. Admission to these seminars is open to all meeting attendees.

Soviet Union
Session 83, Saturday, August 11, 2:30 p.m.

Thoroughbred, Concourse Level

Samih Farsoun, American University

Analysis of sociological research emphasizing the Islamic Middle Eastern societies. The focus seminar features the theoretical foundations of sociology in Islam or the sociology of modern Middle Eastern societies.

Latin America. Social Movements and Democratic Traditions: Theoretical Debates and Policy Implications
Session 163, Monday, August 13, 2:30 p.m.

Map, Concourse Level
Lisa Fuentes, Boston College

The recent effervescence of many Latin American societies signifies a partial, and still fragile, reversal of social and political trends that prevailed under military rule. In this context, the so-called “new social movements” have been identified as critical political actors. This seminar will explore: (1) the conceptual status of these relatively understudied actors; (2) the contradictory roles of grassroots movements in the transitions underway in Argentina, Brazil, and Mexico; and (3) the implications of these new popular movements for democratic consideration. The problematic relationship between the new social movements and party-based modes of representation, as well as the importance of popular responses to austerity and economic restructuring and the emergence of a more tolerant and participatory political culture will be highlighted.

East Asia/Eastern Europe: Socialist Reform Patterns
Session 219, Tuesday, August 14, 10:30 a.m.

Parlor 2101, 2nd Floor
Presider: William Pasley, University of Chicago
Ezra F. Vogel, Harvard University
Daniel Chirot, University of Washington

The reform of Stalinist economies created internal contradictions difficult for any society to bear. The original theoretical structure of Marxist states proved to contain inherent contradictions that has led even the rules to question their own legitimacy. Eastern Europe’s path of allowing political reforms before economic problems created certain social conflicts while China’s path of undertaking economic reforms before political reforms created other problems. Based on field work in Eastern Europe (Chirot) and China (Vogel), the seminar examines the specific problems Marxist societies have in the transition from an authoritarian to a looser social system.
Workshops

Professional Workshops

Job Clinic
Session 1, Thursday, August 9, 9:00 a.m.-12:00 noon, 1:30-5:30 p.m.; Friday, August 10, 9:00 a.m.-12:00 noon, 1:30-3:00 p.m.
Dupont, Terrace Level
Fees: $195 ASA Members, $260 non-members
Richard Irish, Transcency Corporation
This two-day job clinic is designed to help sociologists think through major issues in their career development. The clinic is appropriate for both established academics and newly minted PhDs who are contemplating a move out of academia. In preparation for the clinic, participants will receive Irish’s book and a short assignment. The daily sessions in Washington, DC will deal with a number of different issues, including how to (1) identify marketable skills relevant to one’s job goals; (2) prepare various types of first-rate, door-opening resumes; (3) upgrade participants’ job-finding skills; and (4) negotiate a good salary without an impressive job history. Following the clinic, participants will be able to meet individually with Irish for an hour of personal consultation for a fee of $70.

Negotiating the Academic Job Market
Session 49, Saturday, August 11, 2:30 p.m.
Monroe East, Concourse Level
Cora Merritt, University of Wisconsin-Madison
Linda Malm, University of Arizona
Howard Freeman, University of California-Los Angeles
The workshop will consider the preparation needed for being competitive on the job market, strategies for pursuing job openings, and circumstances to consider when interviewing for academic positions. The panelists will offer ideas but will expect participation from the workshop registrants.

Negotiating the Federal Job Market
Session 90, Sunday, August 12, 10:30 a.m.
Map, Terrace Level
William A. Anderson, National Science Foundation
Gerald L. Dillingham, General Accounting Office
Donald J. Hernandez, U.S. Bureau of the Census
This workshop will discuss employment and career opportunities in the Federal Service, and their benefits and rewards, for persons trained in sociology. Some practical issues will also be discussed, including approaches to job seeking, networking, and preparing Standard Form 171 and other application documents.

Negotiating the Corporate and Business Job Market
Session 121, Sunday, August 12, 2:30 p.m.
Parlor, 2nd Floor
Joan Waring, The Equitable
David Goslin, American Institutes for Research
Christine Wright-Issak, Young and Rubicam
Discussion will center on finding, keeping, advancing in, and staying satisfied with jobs that “use sociology” in the private and not-for-profit sectors. We encourage those aspiring to practice sociology in these sectors, as well as veterans with experiences to share, to join the interchange.

Getting Research Funded
Session 145, Monday, August 13, 8:30 a.m.
Monroe East, Concourse Level
Presider: William V. D’Antonio, American Sociological Association
Panel: Murray Webster, Director, Sociology Program, National Science Foundation
Maltilda White Riley, Associate Director, Behavioral and Social Research Program, National Institute on Aging
Lois Cohen, Director, Extramural Programs, and Assistant Director, International Health, National Institute of Dental Research
Panel members will describe the procedures by which people can apply for research grants within the areas of their domains. There will also be general discussion about the prospects for research funding during the 1990s, and panel members will be open to questions from the floor. It is expected that panel members will provide handouts.

Writing for Scholarly Journals
Session 151, Monday, August 13, 10:30 a.m.
Caucus, Terrace Level
Gerald Marwell, University of Wisconsin-Madison
Judith Lorber, Graduate School and Brooklyn College-City University of New York
Charles M. Bonjean, University of Texas-Austin
Sociologists at Medical and Public Health Schools
Session 194, Monday, August 13, 4:30 p.m.
Map, Terrace Level
Linda K. George, Deborah T. Gold, and George L. Maddox, Duke University
Kyrillos S. Markides, University of Texas Medical Branch-Galveston
Elizabeth Mutran, University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill
This workshop examines the benefits and problems encountered by sociologists employed in medical and public health schools. Topics emphasized include career paths, research in interdisciplinary settings, and relationships with the sociological professional as a whole. Five sociologists from medical and public health schools will discuss these topics with audience members.

Publishing Books
Session 205, Tuesday, August 14, 8:30 a.m.
Caucus, Terrace Level
Mary Frank Fox, Pennsylvania State University
Norman Yetman, University of Kansas
Lisa Freeman, University of Minnesota Press
Helen Pilgrim, Basil Blackwell Inc.
Naomi Schneider, University of California Press
The ins and outs of publishing books: choosing a publisher, presenting a prospectus, negotiating a contract, maintaining relationships with an editor and production staff, marketing the book and keeping it alive.

The IRS Intergenerational Wealth Study
Session 242, Tuesday, August 14, 2:30 p.m.
Map, Terrace Level
Janet McCubbin, Barry W. Johnson, and Jeff Rosenfield, Internal Revenue Service
Reni Clignet, University of Maryland
An overview of an IRS study of the accumulation and transfer of wealth. Data for the Intergenerational Wealth Study come from estate tax returns filed since the inception of the tax in 1916. The IRS has already gathered data from more than 500,000 returns—nearly every one filed from 1916 through 1990. Data collection for 1990 will begin during the summer of 1990. This workshop includes a description of the statistical data available on estate tax decedents, their portfolios and their beneficiaries. Sociologists who are already using the data base will discuss their work. Workshop participants will learn more about this data base and its potential for sociological research.

Teaching Workshops

Academic Leadership: The Role of the Chair
Session 3, Friday, August 10, 9:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m.
Map, Terrace Level
Fees: $55 ASA Members, $75 non-members (includes luncheon)
Lee Bowker, Humboldt State University
Hans O. Maukensch, University of Georgia
Dennis McSweeney, University of New Orleans
This workshop, sponsored by the ASA Teaching Services Program, is designed to acquaint sociology department chairs and chair-designates with material on the undergraduate curriculum, faculty evaluation, departmental planning, resource acquisition, the uses of the power of the chair, faculty motivation and faculty development. Case studies will be used to stimulate discussion on representative dilemmas faced by department chairs.

Opportunities for Sociologists in the Fulbright Scholarship Program (co-sponsored by the Committee on World Sociology)
Session 59, Saturday, August 11, 2:30 p.m.
Map, Terrace Level
Steve Blodgett, Council for International Exchange of Scholars
Edward Tiryakian, Duke University
Anthony Oberschall, University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill
Teaching About the Vietnam War
Session 78, Sunday, August 12, 8:30 a.m.
Monroe East, Concourse Level
Jerald Starr, West Virginia University
Ken Barer, Vietnam Veterans of America Foundation
It was the longest war in U.S. history and it forged a generation. Learn about the national 'teacher/veteran partnership program' to promote more and better teaching of the Vietnam War, its lessons and legacies. Features an overview of effective strategies and resources for teaching the war, with an emphasis on sociological concepts.
Teaching Introductory Sociology for the First Time
Session 51, Sunday, August 12, 10:30 a.m.
Parlor 2101, 2nd Floor
Ann Sundgren, Tacoma Community College
This workshop is designed for those who have never taught Introductory Sociology, either because they are preparing for their very first teaching experience or because their teaching experience has never included the first course. We will focus on course goals and organization, lecture preparation, text selection, exams and assignments, things to do and things to avoid. Handouts will be provided.

Quantitative Analysis in Introductory Sociology Courses: Teaching Diverse Student Populations about Social Issues through CHIPendal
Session 122, Sunday, August 12, 2:30 p.m.
Map, Terrace Level
Organizer and Leader: Josephine Ruggiero, Providence College
Presenters: Josephine Ruggiero, Providence College
Gregg Carter, Bryant College
Arlene McCormack, University of Lowell
Willie Mellon, Michigan Technological University
Jack Harkins, College of DuPage
Workshop participants will introduce instructors to a software program named “CHIP” and their use of quantitative analysis of data from the General Social Survey and other sources to teach diverse student populations about social inequality/social issues. They will describe/demonstrate CHIP1 and CHIP2, discuss specific teaching objectives and how they and students evaluate their experiences with CHIP as a teaching/learning tool.

Teaching Social Demography
Session 141, Monday, August 13, 8:30 a.m.
Caucus, Terrace Level
Brian Pendleton, University of Akron
Joan Kahn, University of Maryland
This workshop will focus on content, style and pedagogy in teaching undergraduate social demography. We will discuss our own experiences in designing syllabi, choosing readings, planning exercises and exams, and generally trying to make Demography an exciting area for students. In addition, we will discuss various computer software packages available for demographic analysis.

Teaching Research Methods to Undergraduates
Session 152, Monday, August 13, 10:30 a.m.
Military, Concourse Level
William Rau, Illinois State University
Theodore C. Wagenaar, Miami University
We provide participants with a series of exercises which help students learn how to reason with and write about numerical data. We then discuss recent developments in teaching research including new computer programs, strategies for teaching evaluation and applied research, and alternative assignments and grading practices.

Internship Programs in Sociology
Session 184, Monday, August 13, 2:30 p.m.
Parlor 3101, 3rd Floor
Richard Salem, University of Wisconsin-Whitewater
Barbara Altman, University of Maryland
This workshop considers issues which are of concern or controversy within departments. How can an internship program be integrated with the curriculum? What is the realistic range of internship opportunities? How can internship participants be evaluated? What impact does an internship experience have on the job attainment of graduates?

Teaching Medical Sociology: Reflections on Audiences, Goals and Approaches
Monday, August 13, 6:30 p.m.
Map, Terrace Level
Organizer and Presider: Bernice Pescosolido, Indiana University
Panel: Virginia Olesen, University of California-San Francisco
Irving K. Zola, Brandeis University
This workshop has two themes. The primary focus is on the implications of diverse audiences (e.g., general, sociology, medical or public health) for the goals of and approaches to teaching medical sociology. A panel of distinguished medical sociologists who work in different settings will provide some insights to begin a general discussion. The secondary focus draws from these reflections to discuss the upcoming revision of the ASA TSP on medical sociology including audience participation in suggesting useful materials that should be developed.

Teaching Sociology of Crime and Criminology
Session 207, Tuesday, August 14, 8:30 a.m.
Parlor 3101, 3rd Floor
Eleanor Miller, University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee
Richard A. Wright, University of Scranton
Techniques for mainstreaming materials on women, racial and ethnic minorities, and gay and lesbian peoples into the sociology of crime and criminology curriculum. Discussion of the power/legitimacy problems that emerge when the Sociology of Crime and Criminology is taught by a woman and when students are seasoned, male police officers.

Sociology in the Secondary School: Needs and Responses
Session 220, Tuesday, August 14, 10:30 a.m.
Parlor 3101, 3rd Floor
Organizer and Presider: Paul Gray, Boston College
Panel: Richard Wilson, Montgomery County Schools
Mary Haas, West Virginia University
Frances Halley, National Council on the Social Studies

Teaching Social Statistics to Undergraduates
Session 253, Tuesday, August 14, 4:30 p.m.
Map, Terrace Level
Louis R. Gaydosch, William Paterson College
Rhoda Estepp, California State University-Stanislaus
This workshop is intended to provide participants with concrete examples of current syllabi, including lectures, assignments and projects, for teaching undergraduate statistics courses. Issues such as the integration of computer skills into the course, as well as dealing with “math anxiety” among students, will also be discussed.

Regular Sessions
Regular Sessions are comprised of papers submitted by the ASA membership in response to the 1990 Call for Papers. Over 80 general topics were announced for open submission, and the designated organizers each received anywhere from 8 to 40 submissions for review. A total of 117 formal paper sessions were organized from the submitted papers. Please refer to the body of the Program for details on each Regular Session.

Supplementary Sessions
Because it is difficult to cover all interests when formulating the list of Regular Session topics, the Program Committee set aside a few sessions to be oriented toward new or omitted topics and designated Beth B. Hess (County College of Morris) as organizer. As a result, there are two Supplementary Sessions on this year’s program: Session 43, Workplace Issues; and Session 269, Stretching the Boundaries of the Discipline. See the body of the Program for complete details.

Poster Sessions
This new component of the program features a series of display presentations that allow face-to-face conversation between authors and viewers. By facilitating informal discussions between presenters and “browsers”, poster sessions provide a more intimate forum for exchange than do formal paper presentations.

Nine poster sessions have been arranged by organizer Stephen F. Steele (Anne Arundel Community College). Be sure to include some time in your schedule to visit the Exhibit Hall and browse through the poster presentations!

Emotions and Social Psychology I
Session 20, Saturday, August 11, 10:30 a.m.
Considering Sex Roles and Gender
Session 51, Saturday, August 11, 2:30 p.m.
Cultural and Cross-Cultural Topics
Session 93, Sunday, August 12, 10:30 a.m.

Emotions and Social Psychology II
Session 102, Sunday, August 12, 12:30 p.m.
Uses of Sociology (co-sponsored by the Section on Sociological Practice)
Session 124, Sunday, August 12, 2:30 p.m.
Labor, Organizations and Related Issues
Session 154, Monday, August 13, 10:30 a.m.

Diversity of Sociological Careers in Washington, DC (co-sponsored by the District of Columbia Sociological Society)
Session 165, Monday, August 13, 12:30 p.m.

Microcomputer Teaching Applications (co-sponsored by the Section on Microcomputing)
Session 186, Monday, August 13, 2:30 p.m.
Health Concerns
Session 221, Tuesday, August 14, 10:30 a.m.
Roundtable Discussions

This popular program component is designed to bring together small groups of people interested in discussing specific topics. The 1990 Program Committee invited Vincent N. Parrillo (William Paterson College of New Jersey) to review proposals and select topics and presenters to guide discussions.

Again this year the informal discussions have been organized around general topics. Please refer to the body of the Program for complete details on these sessions. Since several discussions are held simultaneously in one large meeting room, no audio-visual equipment or recording devices may be used and there are no formal paper presentations.

Theory and Methods
Session 6, Saturday, August 11, 8:30 a.m.
Social Problems
Session 92, Sunday, August 12, 10:30 a.m.
Family, Feminism and Sexuality
Session 123, Sunday, August 12, 2:30 p.m.
International
Session 153, Monday, August 13, 10:30 a.m.
Education
Session 185, Monday, August 13, 2:30 p.m.
Work, Workplace and Stratification
Session 195, Monday, August 13, 4:30 p.m.
Community, Culture and Social Action
Session 229, Tuesday, August 14, 12:30 p.m.
Race and Ethnic Relations
Session 254, Tuesday, August 14, 4:30 p.m.

Tours

Your visit to the Annual Meeting in Washington, DC will be greatly enhanced by participating in at least one or perhaps several of the special tours planned by Manuel de la Puente (US Bureau of the Census). The purpose of these visits is to give sociologists attending the conference a flavor of the type of work that sociologists do in the Washington, DC metropolitan area. At each site, several sociologists and other professional staff at the site will provide an overview of the purpose or mission of the agency, demonstrate or summarize some recent projects and, where applicable, give a tour of the physical plant. Time will be available for questions and individual consultations. Additionally, you won’t want to miss the bus tour of several city neighborhoods that will include Adams-Morgan, Mt. Pleasant, Brightwood, Takoma, and Shepherd Park.

The schedule of tours is provided below. Reservations are mandatory. Please check at the Tickets Desk in the ASA Registration Area for availability and any late cancellations. Those already enrolled in tours should have received their tickets with their name badges.

All groups will depart from the Washington Hilton & Towers Hotel following a brief orientation period. Please refer to the information listed below for exact location of the orientation area and plan to arrive promptly so that departure times are observed. Keep in mind that the arrival times back to the Hilton are estimates only and may vary somewhat due to traffic congestion.

TOUR 1: City of Monuments/City of Neighborhoods
Sunday, August 12, 12:30-4:30 p.m.
Fee: $12.00
Orientation Area: Terrace Level Lobby, T Street entrance
Tour Leader: Clem E. Gilpin, Pennsylvania State University-Harrisburg

Millions of Americans annually visit the sites of the Nation’s Capital. Beyond the monuments and other public attractions is another Washington where nearly 700,000 residents reside in many vital neighborhoods. This tour will explore several of these neighborhoods. Sections of the city highlighted will include: Adams-Morgan and Mt. Pleasant—the heart of the Hispanic community; Brightwood, Takoma, and Shepherd Park—areas represented for the past thirty years by Neighbors, Inc., an integration maintenance organization; and Capitol Hill—Lincoln Square—areas of ongoing gentrification. (Bus Tour; limited to 45 participants)

TOUR 2: The World Bank
Monday, August 13, 10:00 a.m.-12:30 p.m.
Fee: $12.00
Orientation Area: Terrace Level Lobby, T Street entrance
Tour Leader: Michael M. Cernea, Sociology Adviser to the World Bank, AGRFS

Over thirty sociologists and social anthropologists are working as regular staff in the World Bank and hundreds of outside, academically based sociologists and anthropologists carry out short-term assignments as consultants for the World Bank, either in the field or in Washington, DC. Sociologists will fulfill various roles in preparing, appraising or supervising development projects: in formulating some of the World Bank’s policies in carrying out research programs, etc. The host for the ASA visit to the World Bank will be Michael M. Cernea, Sociology Adviser to the World Bank. During the visit, a panel of Bank sociologists will meet with the participants in the ASA tour and will discuss their applied and research work on issues of development, agriculture, education, urban renewal, population resettlement, social indicators, etc. (Bus drop off/pick up; limited to 45 participants)

TOUR 3: National Institutes of Health (NIH)
Monday, August 13, 8:45 a.m.-12:30 p.m.
Fee: $12.00
Orientation Area: Terrace Level Lobby, T Street entrance
Tour Leader: James A. Lipton, National Institute of Dental Research

The National Institutes of Health conducts and funds research in such areas as medical sociology, the sociology of aging, evaluation research, and the sociology of science. Sociologists at NIH work primarily in extramural (grant and contract research) programs, intramural (in-house) or collaborative research settings, and research and health policy roles. Visitors will meet with representatives from each of these activities, learn about funding possibilities from the NIH, and tour work settings on campus. (Bus drop off/pick up; limited to 45 participants)

TOUR 4: The United States Department of Commerce, Bureau of the Census
Monday, August 13, 9:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m.
Fee: $12.00
Orientation Area: Terrace Level Lobby, T Street entrance
Tour Leader: Manuel de la Puente, Center for Survey Methods Research

For two hundred years the Census Bureau has collected and disseminated information about the population and institutions of this Nation. Information generated by the Census Bureau is used by all levels of government as well as private industry, non-profit institutions and foundations, academia and private individuals. For example, political redistricting; allocation of billions of federal dollars; and major social research depend on census data.

Sociologists as well as other social scientists, along with other professionals in the fields of statistics, computer science, and mathematics, to name a few, are involved in all aspects of data collection and data analysis. Visitors on this tour will hear a panel of Census Bureau sociologists describe and discuss their research in areas such as: migration and residential mobility; and family. After this presentation the panel will answer questions from the tour participants. (Bus drop off/pick up; limited to 45 participants)

TOUR 5: Mathew Greenwald & Associates, Inc
Monday, August 13, 1:30-4:00 p.m.
Fee: $5.00
Orientation Area: Terrace Level Lobby, T Street entrance
Tour Leader: Fred Bartter, Mathew Greenwald & Associates, Inc.

Mathew Greenwald & Associates is a six-person consulting firm, specializing in survey research, focus groups, attitudinal tracking, and demographic projections for private industry. Associates of the firm bring their background in Sociology and Demography to the challenges companies face providing products and services tailored to changing social needs. A particular focus of the firm has been research on demand for long-term care insurance, including the perceived risk of needing long-term care and the most marketable design of LTC insurance products. The site visit will consist of an overview of research the firm is conducting and a discussion of the place of social research in corporate decision-making. (Bus drop off/pick up; limited to 5 participants)

TOUR 6: National Institute of Mental Health (NIMH)
Tuesday, August 14, 8:15 a.m.-12:30 p.m.
Fee: $12.00
Orientation Area: Terrace Level Lobby, T Street entrance
Tour Leader: Ronald W. Manderscheid, National Institute of Mental Health

Organizational sociology and social psychology are two key approaches in developing our understanding of the causes, courses, and treatments of different mental disorders. Tour participants will have the opportunity to learn first-hand about research grant opportunities in these areas. Staff representatives will describe program priorities and provide outlooks for potential participants. Sociologists who work at NIMH will be available for informal interaction. (Bus drop off/pick up; limited to 45 participants)

TOUR 7: United States General Accounting Office (GAO)
Tuesday, August 14, 8:00 a.m.-12:45 p.m.
Fee: $12.00
Orientation Area: Terrace Level Lobby, T Street entrance
Tour Leader: Gerald L. Dillingham, United States General Accounting Office

Supporting the Congress is GAO’s fundamental responsibility. This is accomplished by providing a variety of services—the most prominent of which are audits and evaluations (reviews) of federal programs and activities. GAO examines virtually every federal program, activity, and function. Coverage ranges from missles to medicine, from Inventory control to arms control, from outer space to inner cities. Visitors will receive short overview briefings from GAO's senior management on the structure and operation of the agency, the current research activities of the agency's divisions, and the role of GAO's work in public policy issues. In addition, a roundtable session will be held with social scientists discussing the range of work.

Social scientists are involved in GAO, the ways of organizing and presenting social science data to the Congress, the ways in which Congress uses social science material, and on periodic employment opportunities. (Bus drop off/pick up; limited to 45 participants)

TOUR 8: The Urban Institute Tuesday, August 14, 9:00-11:30 a.m. Fee: $12.00 Orientation Area: Terrace Level Lobby, T Street entrance Tour Leader: Adele Harrell, The Urban Institute

The Urban Institute is a private, nonprofit research organization devoted to the independent study of domestic problems, policies, and programs. The Institute engages in a broad program of research, evaluation and analysis for federal, state and local government agencies and private foundations. Staff will provide an overview of the Institute and our approach to policy research. Sociologists will describe some of their current and past research. Recent studies have been conducted on the homeless, drug abuse, mediation, child abuse and welfare reform. Visitors will be introduced to the resources of the Institute, including the computer center and data library, the Urban Institute Press, and the library. (Bus drop off/pick up; limited to 45 participants)

TOUR 9: Project HOPE, Center for Health Affairs (CHA) Tuesday, August 14, 8:45 a.m.-12:15 p.m. Fee: $12.00 Orientation Area: Terrace Level Lobby, T Street entrance Tour Leaders: James A. Wells and Burton D. Dunlop, Center for Health Affairs

The Center for Health Affairs is a private, nonprofit policy research center that provides objective research and policy analysis to help develop solutions for problems in the United States health system and abroad. Sociologists at the Center for Health Affairs manage grant and contract research involving both secondary analysis and primary data collection. The research is multi-disciplinary and may involve investigators from other organizations or universities. Current projects include the cost and utilization of AIDS health care services, international prevalence of sexual risk behaviors for HIV infection, impact of social contacts and care giving on institutionalization and mortality of the elderly, demonstration of comprehensive nursing organizations, and costs of prescription drugs among the elderly. The Center is also involved in methodological studies for surveys fielded by the National Center for Health Statistics and the Health Care Financing Administration.

Visitors will meet and talk to sociologists about the research done at CHA and about sociological research in a non-academic setting. (Bus drop off/pick up; limited to 25 participants)

TOUR 10: United States Department of Education Tuesday, August 14, 1:00-4:00 p.m. Fee: $12.00 Orientation Area: Terrace Level Lobby, T Street entrance Tour Leaders: Joseph C. Conaty and Larry E. Suter, United States Department of Education

The Office for Educational Research and Improvement (OERI) of the US Department of Education provides funds for research on education in the United States. Joseph Conaty of the Office for Research (OERI) and Larry Suter of the National Center for Education Statistics (NCES) will discuss the program of research and statistical studies managed by the two agencies. They will describe the most recent projects that are of national interest, such as the development of national and international indicators and the response to the recently announced National Goals for Education. Visitors will be provided with lists of publications and data files by the agencies and will be introduced to staff members conducting projects of interest to sociologists. (Bus drop off/pick up; limited to 45 participants)

TOUR 11: United States Department of Energy Tuesday, August 14, 1:30-4:30 p.m. Fee: $12.00 Orientation Area: Terrace Level Lobby, T Street entrance Tour Leaders: Beth Darrough, United States Department of Energy, and Todd C. Hanson, Chemical-Hazard Environmental Services, Inc.

A team of government and contractor sociologists will describe their professional opportunities and experiences while working in multi-disciplinary organizations. Formerly, the team was involved in assessing and mitigating the socioeconomic impacts of the development of storage facilities for high-level radioactive waste. Topics researched included community/regional demographic and economic characteristics, public agency functions and methods of finance, community problems and quality of life, sociocultural factors and risk perceptions. Since working as a team, some of the members have transferred to the national laboratories, applying their sociological skills to other endeavors. These efforts cover such areas as radiological risk assessments, evaluations of human factors in transportation accidents, implementing community relations associated with environmental restoration activities, researching community policy issues associated with energy development, economic monitoring and mitigation for energy research projects, and studies of medical indigency and problems of uncompensated health care. This tour will be held in the contractor offices at 955 L'Enfant Plaza. (Bus drop off/pick up; limited to 20 participants)

TOUR 12: United States Justice Department, Office of Justice Programs, National Institute of Justice (NIJ) Tuesday, August 14, 1:45-4:30 p.m. Fee: $12.00 Orientation Area: Terrace Level Lobby, T Street entrance Tour Leader: William F. McDonald, Georgetown University

The National Institute of Justice is the research arm of the Department of Justice. It funds basic and policy-oriented research and reports on crime and criminal justice through grants to external researchers and through a program of in-house research. NIJ will have sociologists and others talk about their work at NIJ and about translating research into policy and practice. In addition, visitors may discuss funding opportunities with NIJ and other programs of the Office of Justice Programs which are housed in the same building. (Bus drop off/pick up; limited to 25 participants)

TOUR 13: Development Associates, Inc. Wednesday, August 15, 9:00 a.m.-12:00 noon Fee: $12.00 Orientation Area: Terrace Level Lobby, T Street entrance Tour Leader: JoAnne L. Willette, Development Associates, Inc.

Founded in 1969, Development Associates is a private management and government consulting firm specializing in economic and social development programs in the United States and abroad. The firm has a multidisciplinary staff of 105 employees, 75 percent of whom speak one or more languages in addition to English. Sociologists can fill a number of research or technical assistance roles in a company of this type.

The firm has implemented several large-scale evaluation and research projects and has conducted a variety of training and technical assistance projects. Examples of contracts in the United States include a national longitudinal evaluation of the effectiveness of services for language minority limited English proficient students and an evaluation of the Vets Administration Readjustment Counseling Program. Large international contracts include a project in Egypt and a contract to provide capacity building assistance to other nations. (Bus drop off/pick up; limited to 25 participants)

TOUR 14: United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) Wednesday, August 15, 1:00-4:00 p.m. Fee: $12.00 Orientation Area: Terrace Level Lobby, T Street entrance Tour Leader: John M. Goering, United States Department of Housing and Urban Development

The Office of Research at the US Department of Housing and Urban Development has been in operation since 1973 and is responsible for the design, funding and analysis of research information on all aspects of US housing, community development and fair housing issues with a particular focus on the evaluation of HUD policies and programs. A broad range of social science methods are used in this research including sample surveys, cost/benefit studies, as well as process and evaluation impact studies.

Discussion with staff can focus on recent research on homelessness, the urban underclass, and the role of neighborhood and resident groups, the characteristics and effectiveness of urban and community development programs, housing discrimination, and the allocation of federal resources. There will also be a brief discussion of HUD funding for doctoral research and the role of sociologists in HUD's research grant and contract process. (Bus drop off/pick up; limited to 35 participants)
Section Activities

Section activities are interspersed throughout the five-day schedule of the Annual Meeting and are open to all meeting attendees. These specialized sessions range in format from formal paper presentations to informal discussion roundtables. The number of sessions allocated to each Section is based on the size of the section; for the 27 active sections, there are a total of 95 program sessions scheduled. The Section Council and Business meetings, program sessions, and receptions are summarized below for quick reference; for more complete information, refer to the body of the Program.

Welcoming and Orientation Party

All new members of the Association, and those who would like to know more about ASA's governance structure and how to become involved in ASA activities, are invited to the Welcoming and Orientation Party on Saturday, August 11, from 6:30:00 p.m., in International East on the Concourse Level.

This welcome is sponsored by the ASA Committee on Membership. Members of ASA Committees and Sections and several ASA officers will be on hand to discuss avenues for formal and informal involvement in the Association. Refreshments will be provided along with the free information. New members and first-time meeting participants are particularly encouraged to be present for this informative event.

Honorary Reception

Since 1984, the American Sociological Association has been joined by sociology departments and regional societies in co-sponsoring the annual Honorary Reception that follows the President's address and the ASA Awards Ceremony. This year the Association is pleased to acknowledge the following as co-sponsors of the Honorary Reception:

- Department of Sociology, George Washington University;
- Department of Sociology, Georgetown University;
- Department of Sociology, University of Maryland;
- District of Columbia Sociological Society; and

We invite all participants to join with our co-sponsors at the Honorary Reception in International East on the Concourse Level at 6:30 p.m., Sunday, August 12, to express our appreciation, congratulations and best wishes to the President and major award winners on what promises to be a festive occasion!

DANcE

Be sure your meeting schedule for Monday, August 13, includes the seventeenth annual Departmental Alumni Night (DANe), where sociologists from around the world meet to reminisce about graduate school days, relay recent rumors, and create new coalitions!

The 1990 Program Committee has added some flair to this annual event by bringing in a dance band for the latter part of the evening. The gathering will begin around 9:00 p.m. in the International Ballroom, with plenty of time for chatting and meeting colleagues and alumni before the dancing begins. The "DANcE" is open to all convention registrants and their guests.

Each graduate department of sociology in the United States and Canada was invited to fly its banner to attract alumni and friends. Tables will also be provided for sociologists in business and industry as well as for international scholars and guests.

Make sure your meeting plans include the social event that brings all your friends together in one place at one time. And don't forget your dancing shoes!
ASA Business Meeting

The annual ASA Business Meeting will begin at 8:30 p.m. on Tuesday, August 14, in Jefferson East on the Concourse Level. All members of the ASA are encouraged to attend to hear Association officers present their reports to the membership and to consider resolutions from ASA members offered for discussion and action.

Resolutions for the Business Meeting must be delivered to the ASA Headquarters Office (State Room, Terrace Level) before 5:00 p.m. on Monday, August 13. Each resolution must indicate the name and affiliation of the submitter and identify the person who will actually present the resolution at the Business Meeting. Those received before the deadline will be posted in the ASA Registration Area so that members may become familiar with upcoming business. Resolutions submitted to the Executive Office by the Friday deadline will be given preference on the Business Meeting agenda; unposted resolutions will be permitted, up to the limit of time available before the 10:20 p.m. adjournment.

Reminder . . . Only current voting members of the ASA may submit, present, discuss and vote on Business Meeting resolutions.

Student Center

Students attending the Annual Meeting may make use of the Student Center located in the Cabinet Room on the Concourse Level. The Student Center will be open from 8:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. on Saturday through Tuesday, and 8:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. on Wednesday, to provide a place for students to meet, caucus, make dinner arrangements, etc. Some refreshments will be provided each day. Additionally, students will have the opportunity to peruse graduate bulletins from various sociology programs around the country. All students registered for the Annual Meeting are welcome to use this hospitality room.

Student Reception

The ASA Membership Committee and the Honors Program Student Association will be co-hosting an informal reception on Monday, August 13, from 6:30-8:30 p.m. in the Student Center (Cabinet Room, Concourse Level) for all students registered at the Annual Meeting. This is an opportunity to socialize with other students attending the meeting.

Capitol Steps Comedy Hour

Enjoy yourself and support the ASA Minority Scholarship Fund at the same time! Sociologists for Women in Society joins ASA in sponsoring a Comedy Hour by the Capitol Steps on Sunday, August 12, 9:00-10:00 p.m. in International Center, Concours Level.

Come laugh with the Capitol Steps as they prove that political fun did not end when Ronald Reagan left office. Based in Washington, DC, this troupe of political satirists performs song parodies poking fun at current events. Proceeds will be used to cover benefit costs and to support the ASA Minority Scholarship Fund ($15 per person contribution; $6 toward benefit; $9 tax-deductible donation to the ASA Minority Scholar Fund; additional contributions are welcome).

To sign up for the Comedy Hour, visit the Tickets Desk in the ASA Registration Area: $15 advance reservations, $10 students, $20 at the door. Advance sales will close at 5:30 p.m. on Sunday, August 12. Those already signed up for the comedy hour should have received their tickets with their program packets.

Spirit of Washington Cruise

Set sail for the Teaching Endowment Fund on Monday, August 13, 7:00-10:00 p.m. Enjoy an evening of conversation, dinner, and dancing on the Spirit of Washington cruise ship. This dinner cruise is a fundraiser for the ASA Teaching Endowment Fund (TEF), a small grants program to support teaching-related projects. Tickets are $40 per person, which includes the cruise, dinner, dancing, bus transit to and from the boat, and $5 donation to TEF (additional contributions are welcome).

To sign up for the cruise, visit the Tickets Desk in the ASA Registration Area. Ticket sales will close by 5:30 p.m. on Monday, August 13. Those already signed up for the cruise should have received their tickets with their program packets.

Buses will depart at 6:00 p.m. from the T Street entrance of the Hilton, Terrace Level Lobby. Be sure to be on time; ticket price is non-refundable. Expected arrival time back at the Hilton is 10:30 p.m.

The following MFP Fellows are participating in this year's Annual Meeting Program. ASA Council and this year's Program Committee are pleased to highlight these professional activities of current and former Fellows. The Minority Fellowship Program (MFP), in operation since 1974, has been a significant factor in recruiting minorities into sociology. Fellows continue to make important contributions to the growth of the discipline. The Association takes great satisfaction in acknowledging this form of professional activity.

Teaching Resources—Concourse Lobby

- Tickets Desk—Concourse Lobby
- Tour Information—Ticket Desk, Concourse Lobby

ASA Information—Concourse Lobby

The ASA Information Desk is staffed with ASA Executive Office personnel who are able to provide information on membership, subscriptions, and publications. Staff will be available Saturday-Tuesday, 8:00 a.m.-5:30 p.m., and Wednesday, 8:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m. Copies of the 1990 Guide to Graduate Departments, Directory of Members, and Directory of Departments are available, as are other ASA publications. Sample copies of ASA journals are available for inspection.

ASA Office—State Room, Terrace Level

The Headquarters Office will be staffed from Friday through Wednesday by ASA Executive Office personnel. Office hours are 3:00 a.m.-6:00 p.m., Friday-Wednesday, August 10-15. The demands on staff time and equipment are limited to official ASA functions. Secretarial services are not available; attendees needing secretarial assistance may contact the Summit Business Center on the Terrace Level.

Child Care—Parlor 6101, 6th Floor

A child care program is being provided by Jennifer Stier and Susan Frenzelli of the ASA Executive Office. Care will be available during the daytime program sessions (8:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.) for infants and children. Evening care must be arranged on an individual basis through local babysitting agencies specializing in this service.

We are pleased to announce that the following individuals/companies have generously offered to help co-sponsor the 1990 Child Care Program, thus defraying some of its expenses and lowering daily fees to parents: Jane and Jack Carey, Greenwood Publishing Group, Inc., ILR Press, Macmillan Publishing Company, Henry and Marion Quellmalz, Sociological Abstracts, Inc., Sociologists for Women in Society, and Larry Suter, Wadsworth Publishing Company and The Washington Hilton and Towers. We thank each contributor for assisting ASA in providing another quality kinder-convention experience for your children.

Lunch and snacks will be provided; however, parents may arrange to take their children out for lunch or bring a special bag lunch with them in the morning if they prefer.

Charges for those who did not pre-register their child for the Child Care Service are $45.00 per child for a half day (8:30 a.m.-1:30 p.m.) and $65.00 per child for the entire day. For children using the service for shorter periods, the half-day fee will apply in order to encourage more stable use, discourage frequent dropping in and out, and simplify payment. Children who are not pre-registered with the service will be accepted only on a space-available, first-come-first-served basis.

Reminder: All parents/guardians using this service must also be paid registrants for the Annual Meeting.

Didactic Seminar Information—Tickets Desk, Concourse Lobby

Those already enrolled for seminars should have received their tickets with their meeting packets. Some tickets may still be available for Didactic Seminar; check at the Tickets Desk for up-to-date information.

Seminar tickets are non-refundable and cancellations cannot be accepted. You may, however, sell your ticket to someone else if you are unable to attend.
Employment Service—Exhibit Hall, Concourse Level
The 1990 Employment Service will be open at the Washington Hilton on Friday, August 10, from 1:00 to 5:00 p.m., and Saturday through Tuesday, August 11-14, from 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.. The service will not be open on Wednesday, August 15.
Facilities will be available for reviewing employment listings, exchanging messages, and interviewing. If you have pre-registered as a candidate for the Employment Service, report to Employment Service Candidate Registration area as soon as possible to activate your file. (Candidate registration forms are not supplied to employers until the candidate files have been activated on-site.) If you have not pre-registered, you should do so as early as possible. Attendees wishing to make full use of this Service should register by 5:30 p.m. on Saturday, August 11.
All persons using this Service must register for the Annual Meeting as well as for use of the Employment Service. Once registered, you will be issued a pass permitting your entrance to the Service any time it is open. No one will be admitted without a pass. Fees for use of the Employment Service: Candidates with ASA membership—$10, Non-member Candidates—$25, Employers—$50. All employer listings must be prepaid (a valid purchase order will be accepted); post-meeting billing is not available.
During the Annual Meeting in San Francisco last year, 103 employers listed 145 openings, including 21 positions outside academia, and 275 candidates registered with the Service. Over 1,100 interviews were scheduled.

Exhibits—Exhibit Hall, Concourse Level
All Annual Meeting attendees are encouraged to browse through the Exhibits located in the Exhibit Hall. Exhibits open on Saturday, August 11, and close on Tuesday, August 14. Exhibit hours are 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. on Saturday-Monday, August 11-13, and 9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. on Tuesday, August 14.
Plan your schedule to include several visits to the 1990 ASA Exhibits to browse through the latest publications, explore current computer hardware and software, chat with representatives of statistical and informational literature, watch the latest film releases, view the photographic display on "Afro-American Presence in Medicine: A Social History Exhibit" by Doris Wilkinson, and relax with colleagues in the lounge area at the back of the hall. See the Directory of Exhibitors listed elsewhere in this Program for names and booth numbers for all exhibitors, and don’t forget to look through the Program for special ads.

Locator File—Concourse Lobby
Locator cards will be filled out by convention attendees as they pick up their registration packets. These cards will then be available for reference at the ASA Information Desk during the meeting to help colleagues contact each other while in DC. Message Exchange boxes are located in the Concourse Corridor so that attendees may have 24-hour access.

Media—Adams, Terrace Level
Media representatives are invited to stop by for registration packets and interview assistance.

Minority Fellowship Information—Concourse Lobby
Information on undergraduate fellowships for advanced study under the MFP and predoctoral programs under the regular MFP program is available from the ASA office. Write or call Ms. Frances Foster, Minority Affairs Manager, or Lionel Maldonado, Director of the Minority Fellowship Program.

Paper Sales—Jefferson West, Concourse Level
The Paper Sales Room is open on Friday, August 10, from 1:00-5:00 p.m.; Saturday-Tuesday, August 11-14, 8:00 a.m.-5:30 p.m.; and Wednesday, August 15, 8:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Papers are available for the price of $2.00 each. All eligible papers which were submitted to the Executive Office for duplication and/or distribution appear on the pink list of "Available Papers" (copy included in your registration packet). Authors who indicated that they would bring copies with them to the Annual Meeting are urged to deliver them to the Paper Sales room as soon as possible upon arrival.
Papers may be purchased as long as supplies last; order for future delivery cannot be accepted. Requests for papers which have sold out or were not supplied may be sent directly to the author(s). In order to facilitate communication with authors, a "Roster of Authors" which includes names and mailing addresses of authors may be purchased for $2.00. Papers may also be available through Sociological Abstracts, Inc.; check the abstracts booklet for information.
The Executive Office is not able to return unsold copies of papers to individual authors; however, authors may pick up any remaining copies of their own papers after 1:00 p.m. on Wednesday, August 15.
Copies of some papers may remain at the end of the meeting. Any institution wishing to obtain some of these should contact the Executive Office before or during the meeting.
Note: All persons wishing access to the Paper Sales Room must be paid registrants for the Annual Meeting; badges are required for entrance into this area.

Professional Development Information—Concourse Lobby
As the ASA’s newest service, the Professional Development Program (PDP) seeks to enhance the role of sociology in all types of public and private job settings and to strengthen sociological practice as a growth area for the profession. Be sure to stop by the ASA Information tables to review available career publications and sociological practice materials.

Resources for Attendees with Special Needs—Concourse Lobby
The ASA Information Desk will coordinate resources during the convention week for registrants with physical disabilities who are attending the Annual Meeting. Again this year the ASA Information Desk is conveniently located adjacent in the ASA Registration Area.
If you sent a special services request prior to the meeting, please check in at the ASA Information Desk on your arrival to ensure that you receive the assistance you need.
Those concerned about special resources and disabilities should note that there is an Open Forum on Disabilities Issues on Tuesday, August 14, 10:30 a.m.-12:20 p.m. in Monroe West, Concourse Level. The forum is open to all convention attendees.

Section Information Table—Concourse Lobby
Information on the 27 ASA Sections, including copies of 1990 Section newsletters, is available in the ASA Information area at the Section table which is staffed by representatives of the various sections. Section representatives will also be present at the Welcoming and Orientation party on Saturday, August 11, in International East at 6:30-8:00 p.m.

Teaching Resources—Concourse Lobby
The ASA Teaching Resources Center (TRC) is a source for written materials about teaching sociology. Most of these products have been written by sociologists; ASA Sections have been active contributors as well, TRC offers syllabi for 39 courses, guidelines for training graduate students for teaching roles, curriculum development, specific teaching skills such as lecturing, and information on the institutional variables that bear on effective teaching. TRC personnel will be staffing the Teaching Resources Table in the ASA Registration area, where copies of current TRC materials will be available. Don’t forget to stop by the table before your departure to look over the display items and ask for the latest catalogue!

Tours—Terrace Lobby, T Street entrance

Those already enrolled for tours should have received their tickets with their meeting packets. Please check at the Tickets Desk in the ASA Registration area (Concourse Lobby) for any cancellations or changes in site schedules.

Orientation sessions for tour groups will be held in the Tour Orientation area in the Terrace Lobby near the T Street entrance. All groups will depart from the T Street entrance to the Hilton. Tickets are required for access to the orientation and departure areas.

Tour tickets are non-refundable and cancellations cannot be accepted. You may, however, sell your ticket to someone else if you are unable to attend.

BRAVE NEW FAMILIES
Stories of Domestic Upheaval in Late Twentieth Century America
JUDITH STACEY
"Stacey has wrought a brilliant blending of the classical sociological voice with that of the engaged and self-reflexive ethnographer... A pleasure to read, it is also a must for anyone interested in the shape and texture of family life today." — Lillian B. Rubin, Ph.D., author of Worlds of Pain
$22.95  Sept. 1990

CHARITY BEGINS AT HOME
Generosity and Self-Interest Among the Philanthropic Elite
TERESA ODENDAHL
"A valuable book... She explicates an important idea: that the American system of high-octane philanthropy, as aided and abetted by the tax laws, ministers not to the needy but to the rich themselves." — Jonathan Yardley, Washington Post Book World $22.95

FROM THE FINLAND STATION
The Graying of Revolution in the Twentieth Century
THEODORE S. HAMEROW
"A host of invaluable political and human insights... will take its place in historiography alongside Crane Brinton's classic The Anatomy of Revolution." — Maurice Meisner, University of Wisconsin, Madison $24.95

HEALTHY WORK
Stress, Productivity and the Reconstruction of Working Life
ROBERT A. KARASEK & TORES THEORELL
"A thoroughly documented and important contribution to our understanding of the relationship between work and health." — Ray Marshall, author of Unheard Voices $29.95

SEPARATE LIVES
Why Siblings Are So Different
JUDY DUNN & ROBERT PLOMIN
Dunn and Plomin show how interactions with parents, siblings, and friends, along with chance events, all combine to create a different environment for each child within the same family.
$19.95  October 1990

TOUGH JEWS
Political Fantasies and the Moral Dilemma of American Jewry
PAUL BREINES
"By skillfully combining historical analysis with the criticism of contemporary popular fiction, he shows how in the struggle to redeem their bodies, 'tough Jews' may have jeopardized their souls." — Martin Jay, University of California, Berkeley
$19.95  Sept. 1990

BASIC SOCIAL STATISTICS
by David Knoke, University of Minnesota and George W. Bohrnstedt, American Institute for Research
The text proceeds from basic issues in the theory-research connection, through frequency distributions, crosstabulations, differences in means tests, analysis of variance, and two variable correlation and regressions. The emphasis is on applications of statistics to answering research questions in the social sciences.
February 1991  c. 390 pages  Hardbound

THE RENASCENCE OF SOCIOLOGICAL THEORY:
Classical and Contemporary Edited by Henry Etzkowitz, State University of New York at Purchase and Ronald M. Glassman, William Paterson College
This collection of fifteen original essays setting forth a broad coverage of theoretical approaches that have arisen within Sociology in recent years. This volume contains a general introduction to the history of sociological theory. Uniquely, it focuses on the different origins, philosophical foundations, and political ideologies of the various schools of sociological thought. The conflicts and controversies between the French-English traditions and the German traditions are described and analyzed. The rise of a whole host of newer theories is then explained, with the link between the new and classical theories made explicit.
August 1990  c. 600 pages  Hardbound

SOCIAL PROBLEMS: Contemporary Readings, Second Edition
Edited by John Stimson, William Paterson College,
Ardyth Stimson, Kean College, and Vincent N. Parrillo, William Paterson College
These forty three readings are sociological but they emphasize the involvement of society's individual members in social problems. One half of the second edition's selections are new.
Two new chapters have been added. One covers the problems of Work and Technology and the other Conflict and War. The fourteen chapters follow the standard Social Problems text order of presentation.
November 1990  c. 300 pages  Paper

Jobs, Earnings and Employment Growth Policies in the United States

edited by John D. Kasarda, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill
1990 ISBN 0-7923-9105-5 160 pp. $42.00

By all accounts, the United States has led the world in job creation. Yet, as the U.S. economy has been churning out millions of jobs annually, conflicting views and heated debates have emerged regarding the quality of these new jobs and its implications for standards of living and U.S. economic competitiveness.

In this context of conflicting data, analyses and interpretations, the Center for Competitiveness and Employment Growth of the Kenan Institute of Private Enterprise at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill assembled leading figures in the debate to articulate their positions and conduct open dialogue. The five chapters and associated commentaries in this book derive from this Carolina Public Policy Conference on Job Creation for the Nineties. They offer highly diverse and provocative assessments of job trends in the United States, their causes and consequences, and policy prescriptions.

STAYING THE COURSE
The Emotional and Social Lives of Men Who Do Well at Work
Robert S. Weiss, University of Massachusetts
Weiss studied a cross-section of men in their middle years who have kept on managing businesses and supporting families no matter what. The result is a unique, original book on men's lives: the texture of their daily experiences, and the meaning to them of work, marriage, parenthood, and friendship.

"An absorbing, moving account of the lives and loves of successful men, the personal myths that guide their behavior in the workplace and the expectations and fears that they bring to their relationships with women, children, friends, and occasionally, lovers. A major contribution to understanding the strengths and vulnerabilities of the men who keep our society going."

—Judith S. Wallerstein, Ph.D., Center for the Family in Transition, author of Second Chances: Men, Women, and Children a Decade After Divorce

WARM HEARTS AND COLD CASH
How Families Handle Money and What This Reveals About Them
Marcia Millman, University of California, Santa Cruz
Focusing on money and the ways it works within the family, Millman challenges the belief that the family is a haven in a heartless world by showing that it is characterized by many of the hard traits of the market, expressed in the ways in which we use money—often unwittingly—to discriminate among our children, punish estranged spouses, gauge our parents' true feelings for us, or prevent a partner from leaving. She shows that an honest assessment of how families deal with money is a vital step in forging happier lives.

BROKEN HEARTLAND
The Rise of America's Rural Ghetto
Osha Gray Davidson
In the first in-depth study of the disintegration of the nation's farmland, Davidson vividly portrays life in dying communities riddled with farm foreclosures, plant closings, and conglomeratization—and underscores how this devastation challenges traditional American democratic principles and beliefs. He examines recent trends in rural economic development, demonstrating why these strategies more often deepen rural problems. Instead, Davidson offers an outline for a more workable and sustainable development which could lead to an era of rural prosperity and stability.
1990 ISBN: 0-02-907035-4 $22.95

DISORDER AND DECLINE
Crime and the Spiral of Decay in American Neighborhoods
Wesley Skogan, Northwestern University
"Panhandling, graffiti, prostitution, abandoned cars and buildings and junk-filled lots are evidence of neighborhood disorder and decline. In this absorbing and valuable study, Skogan discusses the implications of disorder and skillfully analyzes experimental efforts undertaken to confront it in several American cities. I found the book marked by a compelling feeling for the plight of slum dwellers and, at the same time, a clear comprehension of the limits under which reform efforts should operate. Should be read by anyone concerned with the quality of urban life and the future of our cities."
—Gilbert Geis, University of California, Irvine, Past President, American Society of Criminology
1990 ISBN: 0-02-929151-8 $22.95

MADNESS IN THE STREETS
How Psychiatry and the Law Abandoned the Mentally Ill
Rael Jean Isaac and Virginia C. Armat
"Madness in the Streets presents a compelling account of the systemic retreat from caring for the mentally ill that we call 'deinstitutionalization.' Isaac and Armat trace, for the first time, the varied roots of that disastrous policy, including the misguided contributions of the law, sociology, and psychiatry itself. If an accurate diagnosis is the first step to cure, Isaac and Armat put us on the road to reversing three decades of muddled thinking and bad social choices. This book is a sign that we might yet begin to provide appropriate care for the chronic mentally ill."
—Paul S. Appelbaum, M.D., Director, Law and Psychiatry Program, University of Massachusetts; Chair, Council on Psychiatry and the Law, American Psychiatric Association
October 1990 ISBN: 0-02-913380-8 $24.95

AUCTIONS
The Social Construction of Value
Charles W. Smith
"This brilliant new book will appeal to everyone who has been fascinated by the process of buying and selling at auctions. Smith not only turns up many aspects of auctioneering which the ordinary person is likely to know little about, but also shows that auctions provide insights into many other 'orthodox' forms of market transaction. This book will to my mind become a classic study, combining as it does fascinating description and profound analysis of the nature and origin of social and monetary values."
—Anthony Giddens, Cambridge University

DOWN TO EARTH SOCIETY
Introductory Readings
Sixth Edition
James M. Henslin, Southern Illinois University, Edwardsville

Now in its Sixth Edition, this widely used text has been updated to include nearly fifty percent of important new material. Compatible with most introductory texts, this revised volume retains the basic structure and appealing mixture of classic and contemporary research which have made past editions so popular. Easy to read and comprehend, Henslin's book focuses on participant observation which offers students a sense of "being there" as sociologists make their investigations.

In this edition, twenty new articles examine such diverse topics as self-fulfilling stereotypes, expressions of sympathy, undercover work, racism in education, house-husbands, the Japanese work organization, and racism as experienced by Hispanics. There is an increased emphasis on sexual discrimination with articles on its manifestations in communication, among children, and in everyday life. Henslin retains excellent coverage of social inequality, deviance, and social institutions while adding a new Part II which focuses on how sociologists do research. As always, each article and section is preceded by a concise and effective introduction which highlights the information covered.

Available January 1991
ISBN: 0-02-914456-6 $14.95

SIMSOC
Simulated Society
Fourth Edition
William A. Gamson, Boston College

SIMSOC is a unique social process game intended to make social science material more vivid and meaningful than has been possible with traditional teaching methods. Now in its Fourth Edition, SIMSOC—Simulated Society is a way to involve students actively in processes of large-scale conflict, protest, social control, and social change. Designed to be played with or without a computer, SIMSOC creates a situation in which the participant is led to question the nature of social order.

Long time users of SIMSOC will not need to unlearn old rules and procedures to run the new Fourth Edition—rule changes have been kept to a minimum. A number of new options have been added, including ways of utilizing the personal computer and videotape in running the game. These options are particularly important in enhancing the role of the mass media. Readings have also been changed to reflect the interests of participants in leadership training programs and workshops. Those that remain from earlier editions are still topical as unfolding events provide new illustrations of the social processes they discuss.

Available January 1991

Attention Professors: Both of these new editions will be available in January for Spring adoptions.

MARRIAGE AND FAMILY IN A CHANGING SOCIETY
Third Edition
Edited by James M. Henslin

The third edition of this popular and acclaimed text has been thoroughly revised and updated with over fifty percent new information, including stimulating selections on crises in the family and on the nature and meanings of lasting relationships. Organized to follow the development of the marital life cycle from dating to parenthood to divorce to widowhood, here are insightful articles by experts such as Lillian B. Rubin, David Finkelhor, Jessie Bernard, Pepper Schwartz, and many others. This new edition comes with two indexes, a handy statistical appendix, and instructor's manual.

SOCIOLOGY
Fourth Edition
BETH B. HESS, ELIZABETH W.
MARKSON, and PETER J. STEIN
The new edition of this highly acclaimed text reflects seventy years of collective teaching experience. As in previous editions, the authors help introductory sociology students discover the distinctly sociological perspective and apply it to social and personal issues of everyday life.

Revised to incorporate relevant new data and research, each chapter in Sociology, Fourth Edition, continues to be well-balanced with classic sociological studies. A new chapter entitled “Sexualities” has been added, along with expanded discussions on such current social issues as homelessness, racism, and the state of the Civil Rights Movement.

The following teaching package will be available with the fourth edition of Sociology:
• Instructor’s Manual
• Test Bank
• Computerized Test Bank
• Student Study Guide
• Computerized Study Guide
• Hypercard Student Tutorial
• Computer Simulation with Instructor’s Manual
• Media Assistance Program

INTRODUCTION TO
SOCIAL PROBLEMS
Second Edition
THOMAS J. SULLIVAN and
KENRICK S. THOMPSON
Introduction to Social Problems, Second Edition, emphasizes the interplay between research and policy in the development of solutions for today’s most difficult and controversial social problems. By dispelling many of the myths surrounding these problems, it encourages students to see that the best solutions stem from the application of research.

THE FAMILY
EXPERIENCE
A Multicultural Reader
MARK HUTTER
This new anthology of 45 readings and articles addresses issues of gender, race, class, and ethnicity, providing students with a view of the multicultural character of today’s American family.

WORLD LABOUR REPORT, Volume 4
This report examines employment conditions of civil servants around the world with particular emphasis on pay and social security benefits. 1989, 159 pp ISBN 92-2-106444-1 paper $21.00

HOME WORK
2/89 CONDITIONS OF WORK DIGEST
Home work is dominated by women. Homeworkers are a particularly vulnerable category of workers due to their isolation and weak bargaining position. How much protection is provided to homeworkers under national legislation is examined in this issue on the basis of the fact sheets on legislation covering home work. 1989, 312 pp ISBN 92-2-106508-1 paper $28.00

WOMEN IN THE WORLD OF WORK: STATISTICAL ANALYSIS AND PROJECTIONS TO THE YEAR 2000
by S. Nuss in collaboration with E. Denti and D. Vity
This book provides the most extensive and reliable data available today on women's economic activity. It presents statistical information, analysis, and projections from 1950 to 2000, at global, regional and national levels. It contains numerous charts that graphically illustrate trends and future prospects by age, sex and economic sector. 1989, 132 pp ISBN 92-2-106507-3 paper $14.00

HEALTH INSURANCE IN DEVELOPING COUNTRIES
THE SOCIAL SECURITY APPROACH
by A. Ron, B. Abel-Smith, G. Tamburi
This timely volume describes the evolution of the social security approach to health insurance, from the first initiatives in Europe to the adaptation of the concept in other parts of the world. It focuses on benefits and financing, and on the inter-relationship between the social security system and government agencies, particularly those dealing with health. Profiles of health care programs in Asia are provided. 1990, 231 pp ISBN 92-2-106475-1 paper $19.25

Anyway you slice it, if the discussion or research involves homelessness, drug abuse, eating disorders, disaster studies, sports, the family, race relations, health care, or critical social policy issues, then sociological abstracts (sa) and its sister database Social Planning/Policy & Development Abstracts (SOPODA) are the sources that will satisfy your appetite for the most comprehensive, timely and diverse sociological and social science information.

sa and SOPODA provide in-depth abstracts from more than 1,800 core sociology and related journals published worldwide.

Both sa and SOPODA are available in three formats, eminently palatable to novices and experienced users alike:

- in print
- online (via BRS, BRS's After Dark and Colleague, DIALOG, and DIALOG's Knowledge Index),
- & on compact disc as sociofile.

Support services include:
- An Online Training and Practice File (DIALOG's ONTAP file 177)
- Workshops tailored to the needs of beginners and sophisticated users (Give us a call.)
- An 800-number user help line
- The sa Thesaurus of Sociological Indexing Terms

For a taste of what's cooking in sociology, give sa and SOPODA a nibble at Booth #206

RADICAL SOCILOGISTS AND THE MOVEMENT
Experiences, Lessons, and Legacies
Edited by MARTIN OPPENHEIMER, MARTIN J. MURRAY, and RHONDA F. LEVINE
As part of the current rediscovery of the Sixties, this book brings together autobiographical essays by individuals whose radicalism developed in and around the academic discipline of sociology. Aiming to "redefine sociology to correspond to social reality," these academics broke from the institutional establishment and turned to radical interpretations of the persistence of such problems as racial, economic, and gender inequality.

New Books on Social Issues from G. K. Hall and Twayne Publishers

The Creationist Movement in Modern America
Raymond A. Eve and Francis B. Harrold, The University of Texas at Arlington

Drawing on sociological theory, Eve and Harrold bring new insight into the movement and the social and psychological forces compelling individuals to join it. The authors also explore its historical background, illuminate the legislative and judicial tactics that have enabled the movement to challenge the scientific establishment, and speculate on the movement’s future. A balanced treatment of a highly charged topic.

THE STRUCTURE OF SOCIOLOGICAL THEORY, Fifth Edition
by Jonathan Turner,
University of California, Riverside
The most authoritative, comprehensive treatment of theories and theorists available today. Turner discusses, in detail, the work of key modern theorists as well as the "founding fathers" of sociological theory. Includes new chapters on general systems theory, human ecology, sociobiology, rational choice theory, dramaturgy, network analysis, and French structuralism as well as a new section that represents Turner's ideas on how to develop sociological theory.

CRIMINOLOGY: A CONTEMPORARY HANDBOOK
by Joseph F. Sheley, Tulane University
Now your students get the best of both worlds—a core text with chapters written by key researchers in the topic areas covered. Each author provides a timely critical analysis of his/her area of expertise, giving students state-of-the-art coverage. Includes chapters on victimization, capital punishment, gun control, drugs and crime, and career criminals.

AMERICAN DELINQUENCY: ITS MEANING AND CONSTRUCTION
Third Edition
by LaMar T. Empey and Mark C. Stafford, Washington State University
The first text to examine delinquency in terms of the historical and cultural context of children is back in a new edition. Empey (along with coauthor Mark Stafford) identifies connections between theory, practice, and policy; acquaints students with a variety of explanations and possible solutions; and includes updated data and statistics such as recent research findings and public policy chapters.

TECHNOLOGIES & SOCIETY: THE SHAPING OF PEOPLE & THINGS
by Ron Westrum, Eastern Michigan University
The first text to provide a comprehensive, unified, systematic overview of how society and technology work (or fail to work) together. Westrum uses current examples such as the Chernobyl, Challenger, and Bhopal accidents to demonstrate our current inability to manage complex systems and the need to reexamine current social institutions.
Marriage & Family Texts from Wadsworth: Choices for a Changing World

New in 1990-1991

MARRIAGES AND FAMILIES: MAKING CHOICES AND FACING CHANGE
Fourth Edition
by Mary Ann Lamanna, University of Nebraska and Agnes Riedmann

In this new edition, Lamanna and Riedmann take the theme of making choices one step further by showing how societal and economic constraints add a new dimension to decision making. Includes major updating of statistics, research, and data and new material on dating, courtship, the feminization of poverty, racial and ethnic differences, positive communication techniques, single parenting, daycare, and family violence.

MARRIAGE AND THE FAMILY
Third Edition
by Marcia Lasswell, California State Polytechnic University and Thomas Lasswell, University of Southern California

The Lasswells speak directly to your students in this personal and pragmatic overview of marriage and the family. They combine a sociological/psychological approach (Thomas Lasswell is a sociologist; Marcia Lasswell is a psychologist) to balance their presentation. Includes numerous counseling applications as well as practical “how to” examples.

ILLUSION AND DISILLUSION: THE SELF IN LOVE AND MARRIAGE
Fourth Edition
by John F. Crosby, University of Kentucky

A refreshing alternative to standard marriage and family texts, Crosby’s book gives students a realistic, down-to-earth overview of the basic theories and practical realities of marriage. Set within a family systems framework, individual dynamics are presented in terms of interactions both within one’s family of origin and one’s present relationship.

THE BLACK FAMILY: ESSAYS AND STUDIES, Fourth Edition
by Robert Staples, University of California, San Francisco

This widely respected anthology is in a class of its own—providing students with the key research and readings needed for a solid background in black family sociology. Many new articles are included in this edition.

UNDERSTANDING STATISTICS IN THE SOCIAL SCIENCES

By WILLIAM RAY ARNEY

This is the ideal text for students of sociology, social work, psychology, and related areas of study. Unlike other texts, this highly accessible book teaches the "language" of statistics—helping students build a basic statistical vocabulary.

The provocative, brief historical interludes interest students by exploring the human and political dimensions of the disciplines. And, data sets are fully incorporated—with examples that clearly explain how statistics are used to answer questions about data.

ALL THIS IN A PAPERBACK FOR $19.95!

Arney is priced for students who also need to purchase software. If you haven’t seen Arney’s UNDERSTANDING STATISTICS IN THE SOCIAL SCIENCES, please write for a complimentary copy to Marketing Department, W. H. Freeman and Company, 41 Madison Avenue, New York, NY 10010.

Macintosh users, remember Paul Velleman’s LEARNING DATA ANALYSIS WITH DATA DESK. A fully functional modern data analysis program for only $25.00.

The Oral History of a Nicaraguan Family

DIANNE WALTA HART

In a restaurant in Esteli, Nicaragua, Dianne Walta Hart, a visiting American scholar, and Marta López, member of a Nicaraguan women's organization, began to talk of the Sandinista revolution and of the changes it had brought, especially for women. Their conversation was to continue at intervals over the next four years; it expanded to include Marta's mother, sister, and brother. From these conversations comes the powerful and moving oral history of a Nicaraguan family in the twentieth century: a testimonial by ordinary people caught up in civil strife and living in a country devastated by war and inflation. Tracing the story of the López family from the years of repression and guerrilla activity under Somoza, through an era of personal and political revolution in the 1970s and 1980s, Hart shows real people persevering against every kind of adversity. $25.00 Cloth.

Family Dynamics in China

A Life Table Analysis

ZENG YI

Family Dynamics in China establishes three major milestones in demography. It provides the first English-language demographic profile by a Chinese author of contemporary population trends and family dynamics in China; it constructs a viable mathematical model for extending existing family-status life table models to the three-generational family that is still common in China and the rest of Asia; and it uses that model to compare the dynamics of family structure in China before and after the dramatic drop in fertility that followed the 1979 implementation of stringent family size limits. $37.50 Cloth, $15.95 Paper.

Women, the State, and Welfare

EDITED BY LINDA GORDON

Women, the State, and Welfare is a thorough introduction to how welfare programs affect women and how gender relations have influenced the structure of welfare programs. By giving readers access to a wide range of thinking about women and welfare, this book will help bring gender to the center of welfare scholarship and policy making, and welfare issues to the center of feminist thinking and action. In addition to Linda Gordon, the contributors are: Teresa Amott, Paula Baker, Frances Fox Piven, Nancy Fraser, Jane Jenson, Gwendolyn Mink, Barbara J. Nelson, Diana Pearce, Virginia Sapiro, and Elizabeth M. Schneider. $35.00 Cloth, $12.95 Paper.

Textual Dynamics of the Professions

Historical and Contemporary Studies of Writing in Professional Communities

EDITED BY CHARLES BAZERMAN AND JAMES PARADIS

Textual Dynamics of the Professions is a collection of 15 essays examining the real effects of texts on professional practices—in academic, scientific, and business settings. Bazerman and Paradis describe textual dynamics as an interaction in which professional texts and discourses are constructed by, and in turn construct, social practices. This anthology stands apart in its treatment of a wide range of professional texts, including case studies, student papers, medieval letters, and product instructions, and in the inclusion of authors from a variety of disciplines. $42.50 Cloth, $15.75 Paper. Rhetoric of the Human Sciences

Event History Analysis

in Life Course Research

EDITED BY KARL ULRICH MAYER AND NANCY B. TUMA

A compendium of studies drawn from an international conference, this volume includes the newest and most substantive work on event history analysis. The studies included present work done in the following organizations: The Max Planck Institute in West Germany; The U. S. Social Science Research Council's Committee on Comparative Stratification; The Special Research Unit of the Deutsche Forschungsgemeinschaft; MASO, an informal German working group on mathematical sociology. $50.00 Cloth, $18.75 Paper.

Housing Demography

Linking Demographic Structure and Housing Markets

EDITED BY DOWELL MYERS

Housing Demography is the first effort to give cross-disciplinary investigations of population and housing an identity and a common name. Essays commissioned especially for the volume address four main issues: household formation and composition; housing choices; housing construction and inventory change; and spatial patterns and consequences. $45.00 Cloth, $18.25 Paper. NEW PERSPECTIVES IN SOCIOLOGY
Series Editors: Charles Tilly and Scott G. McNall

Sociology is entering a fruitful period of reflection, debate, and innovation; challenges to its traditional premises couple with bold alternative conceptions of its missions, methods, and models. Today’s sociology combines ideas of its own with important contributions from history, philosophy, economics, political science, geography, and psychology. New Perspectives In Sociology will offer the best of this work in the form of concise paperback treatises for scholars and upper-level students. Books in the series will address key debates on emerging issues, synthesize broad topics undergoing significant redefinition, and assess methods or approaches of new importance to the field.

The series will reflect the concerns and diversity of social science, covering topics such as gender, economic organization, social movements, ethnicity, inequality, and state-citizen relations. The editors and the publisher are committed to a serious intellectual agenda, to a broadening and deepening of the sociological enterprise, and to the presentation of creative efforts that drive the discipline forward.

The Nature of Work
Sociological Perspectives
edited by Kai Erikson and Steven Peter Vallas
The nature of work in America is changing in important ways. Blue-collar jobs are being eliminated because of increased competition from foreign countries, while a greater economic role is being assumed by professional, clerical, and technical workers. In this book, America's leading authorities on the sociology of work—including Melvin Kohn, Rose Laub Coser, Cynthia Fuchs Epstein, Arthur Stinchcombe, Louis Ferman, Stanton Wheeler, Eliot Freidson, Lewis Coser, Seymour Bellin, S.M. Miller, Theda Skocpol, Elijah Anderson, Fred Best, Herbert Gans, Rosabeth Moss Kanter, Amitai Etzioni, and William Form—discuss this recent transformation. $35.00

Sociology from Yale
Teaching Sociology
Requests Manuscripts for Special Issues

Teaching Sociology is soliciting articles and notes on the following topics for future special issues:

- Teaching About the World of Ethnic Relations. The 1991 Annual Meeting theme will deal with race and ethnic relations. As President-Elect Stanley Lieberson has stated, "Race and ethnic relations is one of the most durable topics in the history of American sociology." One important aspect of this topic is how its various dimensions can effectively be taught and learned. Manuscripts are invited which deal with a wide variety of ideas, issues, and content from infusing multicultural perspectives into courses and curricula, to examining and describing how best to teach such terms as ethnic, race, racism, minority, prejudice, assimilation, institutionalized racism, etc. Deadline for submission is July 1, 1991.

- Great Ideas for Teaching Sociology: G.I.F.T.S. To effectively teach the discipline of sociology, many sociologists have created a specific pedagogical technique that works for a specific topic, concept, theory, idea, issue, or purpose. These techniques and ideas need to be communicated to others so they can be tried in the classroom. Consequently, manuscripts are invited which describe a favorite technique or idea so that the reader can easily duplicate it. Each submission should also state the purpose of the technique or idea, the course or courses for which it is most appropriate, its advantages (pluses) and disadvantages (pitfalls) and any evidence (if available) which documents that it works. Submissions should be no longer than 10 pages in length. Do you have a GIFT to share with colleagues? Deadline for submission is October 1, 1991.

Send all submissions to the editor: Dean S. Dorn, Department of Sociology, California State University, Sacramento, CA 95819. Bitnet: DSDorn@CalState.

Richardson, James T., editor
MONEY AND POWER
IN THE NEW RELIGIONS
"...there are nuggets of insight... [Some of the new religions] are similar in offering techniques for the here and now rather than everlasting life. They have chosen different marketing strategies and different stances vis-à-vis the claim to being a religion. There are advantages and disadvantages to marketing techniques as religion - tax exemption is [one]... Until the late 1970s, a halo effect helped religious marketing: 'All religions are good.' Contributions dried up as the halo faded. A more general consensus became 'most religions are scams.' [As the article's headline asks:] Where's a church to get money in an age of faded halos?" – National Catholic Reporter
