ASA is Hiring: Director of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion

This is an exciting opportunity to conceptualize and operationalize strategic direction for the association’s diversity, equity and inclusion efforts focused on both the association and the discipline. Join us in working toward our mission of serving sociologists in their work, advancing sociology as a discipline and profession, and promoting the contributions and use of sociology to society. ASA’s office is in Washington, DC. For the full job advertisement, visit here.

Come Advocate on Capitol Hill

ASA is a member of the National Humanities Alliance and the Consortium of Social Science Associations. Join a growing community of advocates from around the country for the NHA Annual Meeting and Humanities Advocacy Day, March 8-10 and Social Science Advocacy Day on March 30-31.

2020 Annual Meeting

- Annual Meeting Housing. The 2020 Annual Meeting will be held at the Hilton San Francisco Union Square and the Parc 55 hotels. Reservations are now open. Read more.
- Introducing ConferenceShare. Are you looking for someone with whom to share a room while attending the Annual Meeting? Sign up on ConferenceShare to connect with potential roommates. Read more.
- Meeting Space and Display Tables for Affiliated Groups. March 13, 2020, is the deadline for requesting meeting space and/or a display table at the 2020 Annual Meeting. Requests are limited to activities sponsored by members or organizations of interest to sociologists. Read more.
- Travel Funding. There are two funding options available for the Annual Meeting, the Annual Meeting Travel Fund and Student Forum Travel Awards. Please visit the respective pages for information on each fund. The deadline for applying for meeting funding is April 1; awards will be announced by May 15.

City & Community Invites Applications for New Editor(s)

Individual and team applications are invited for the position of editor of City & Community, a journal of the ASA Section on Community and Urban Sociology. The official term for the new editor (or co-editors) will begin in 2021, with the editorial transition beginning in late 2020. Read the call for applications.

Call for Papers: Special Issue of Teaching Sociology on Teaching Sexualities

Quick Links

- 2020 Annual Meeting
- ASA Store
- Job Bank
- Journals
- Footnotes
- Member Portal (login required)
- Research
- Sections
- TRAILS teaching resources

Stay Connected to ASA
Sociology on Teaching Sexualities

Teaching Sociology invites manuscripts for a special issue on "Teaching Sexualities." At a time when both courses and course materials for teaching the sociology of sexualities are on the rise, this special issue seeks to gain insights from those who deliver sexualities courses in hopes of providing guidance for other instructors. Submissions are due July 1, 2020. [Read more.]

Register for Upcoming ASA Member Webinars

- March 24: Discover the World of IPUMS
- April 22: Best Practices and Strategies for Online Teaching

Click on the links to learn more and register. (At check out, the cost will become $0 for members.)

New Teaching Resources in TRAILS

- Misery in Methods: Moderating Negative Emotions of both Students and Teachers in Quantitative Undergraduate Methods Classes by Warren Waren
- Analyzing Masculinities with Digital Media: A Podcast Assignment by Karen Christopher

Access to TRAILS, a peer-reviewed digital teaching resources library, is free to ASA members. Every month we highlight new resources.

Hot Off the Press: Journal Highlights

- Heatmaps for Patterns of Association in log-Linear Models by Mauricio Bucca (Socius, February 6, 2020)

Visit the journals homepage for centralized information on all ASA journals, including how to subscribe or purchase a single article, submit a manuscript, or view recently featured articles.

For assistance or information, contact membership@asanet.org. If you would like to unsubscribe by mail, send your request to:

American Sociological Association
1430 K Street NW, Suite 600
Washington, DC 20005

Privacy Policy