ASA Launches 2019 Member-Get-A-Member Campaign
The American Sociological Association asks ASA members to encourage their colleagues, students, and others interested in the discipline of sociology to join ASA for 2019. Each current member who sponsors a new member is eligible for special recognition, prizes, and discounts on member dues. Read more.

ASA Election Closes May 31
Voting in the 2019 ASA election closes at 5:00 p.m. EDT on Friday, May 31. Results will be shared the following week. All eligible members were sent an email from the election vendor (Sociological.ballot@intelliscaninc.net) with a ballot link. Individuals who requested a paper ballot were sent information by mail. For general election information and to see the full election slate and candidate profiles for the ASA-wide election, visit www.asanet.org/election.

2019 ASA Annual Meeting News and Updates #ASA19
- The Annual Meeting Career Center includes the Employment Fair and Prep Talks. The Employment Fair is an opportunity for job seekers to meet informally with multiple employers. Prep Talks feature short presentations on an array of topics helpful to job seekers such as preparing a job talk and negotiating a contract. Visit the web page for Job Seekers for more information. If you are an employer interested in joining the Employment Fair, registration information is now available.
- Online Program. The Annual Meeting program is available online. Please send any changes to session listings to ASA Meeting Services (meetings@asanet.org) by June 1 for inclusion in the printed program. Changes received after June 1 will only appear in the online program and program app.
- ASA Exhibits. Plan to visit the Exhibit Hall for the latest publications, products, and services of interest to meeting attendees. See the list of confirmed exhibitors.
- Join us at a Preconference or Course in New York. These provide an extended opportunity for professional development.
- ASA has organized a preconference for department chairs, directors of graduate studies, and directors of undergraduate studies. This year’s Department Leaders Preconference will focus on "Social Science and Social Justice: Navigating Tensions and Exploring Opportunities." The preconference will consider how sociology departments can navigate this rocky political, educational, and intellectual terrain.

New in the ASA Rose Series
Golden Years? Social Inequality in Later Life
In the newest volume in the ASA Rose Series in Sociology, Deborah Carr draws insights from multiple disciplines to illuminate the complex ways that socioeconomic status, race, and gender shape nearly every aspect of older adults' lives. By focusing on an often-invisible group of vulnerable elders, Golden Years? reveals that disadvantages accumulate across the life course and can diminish the well-being of many. ASA's publishing partner for the Rose Series, the Russell Sage Foundation (RSF), offers a 20% discount to ASA members on any RSF published volume in the series. Order your copy today. Use promotion code ROSE2019 at checkout to receive your member discount.

New Teaching Resource in TRAILS
- Where's Waldo? Using Smartphone Photography to Engage Students Beyond the Classroom, by Roman R. Williams and Kevin R. den Dulk

Access to TRAILS, a peer-reviewed digital teaching resources library, is free to ASA members. Every month we highlight a new resource.

Hot Off the Press: Journal Highlights
- Review Essay: The Penthouse Peanut Butter and Jelly Sandwich by Pawan Dhingra (Contemporary Sociology, May 2019)
- Are Robots Stealing Our Jobs? by Eric Dahlin (Socius, May 10, 2019)

Visit the journals homepage for centralized information on all ASA journals, including how to subscribe or purchase a single article, submit a manuscript, or view recently featured articles.