Recent titles of interest

C—UNIT: Search for Community in Prison

Elliot Studt, Sheldon L. Messinger, and Thomas P. Wilson

This volume contains one of the most complete and detailed reports ever made on an effort to establish a therapeutic community within the walls of a prison. The report describes how the program was launched, gives a number of examples of its operation, and outlines the new problems and prospects created for inmates, staff, and the broader prison administration by this attempt to redefine the roles within the prison.

CIVIL JUSTICE AND THE POOR

Jerome E. Carlin, Jan Howard and Sheldon L. Messinger

From the Foreword by Jack Greenberg:

"Central to what we do in so uncharted an area are the questions of what difference our lawsuits will make in law and society—questions of social priority and social effectiveness. Jerome Carlin and his associates have dared to pose the problems we must probe and how and when we should delve into them. Rarely, if ever, have such provoking questions been put at the outset of a legal undertaking. If we pursue only some of them, we shall have laid a sound foundation for a legal structure that will shape the quality of American life for generations to come."
