We are excited to announce the first in a series of professional development webinars for members. Please join us on January 16, 2019, at 3 p.m. EST/noon PST to hear Tanya Golash-Boza discuss strategies you can use to increase your creativity and productivity. Click here to learn more and to register in the ASA bookstore. (At check out, the cost will become $0 for members.)

2019 ASA Annual Meeting Updates

- Submission Deadline is January 9, 2019, 11:59 p.m. EST. Don’t wait until the last minute. The deadline to submit your paper, course, workshop, preconference, and symposium proposals is quickly approaching. Visit the 2019 Call for Submissions web page for more information. Please note that the ASA office will be closed December 24-January 1. Responses to questions regarding submissions may be slightly delayed during that time, but all inquiries will be addressed within 48 hours.

- Volunteer Roles Open. ASA members can volunteer to serve as an Annual Meeting session presider, table presider, or discussant. Please note that volunteering does not guarantee an invitation to serve. Session organizers fill these positions based on a variety of considerations. The deadline to volunteer is January 9, 2019 at 11:59 p.m. EST. Please visit the Volunteer Information page to learn more.

- Invited Session Preview. View the roster of Invited Sessions which include Plenary Sessions, Presidential Panels, Thematic and Special Sessions, Author Meets Critics Sessions, and the Regional Spotlight Sessions.

2020 ASA Annual Meeting

Opportunities Coming in January. The theme for the 2020 Annual Meeting is "Power, Inequality, and Resistance at Work." Members will be invited to submit session proposals for Thematic, Special, Regional Spotlight, and Author Meet Critics Sessions in late January. The deadline to submit proposals for 2020 will be March 15, 2019. Members will also have the opportunity to volunteer as session organizers for regular sessions. Please stay tuned for more details coming in January!

Call for Applications: Deadline February 1, 2019

Carla B. Howery Teaching Enhancement Fund

The Carla B. Howery Teaching Enhancement Fund provides small grants to support projects that advance the scholarship of teaching and learning in sociology. Principal criteria for the award are that the project is innovative, advances teaching and learning in sociology, serves as a seed project, and will continue to have a systemic impact over time. Howery teaching grants can support an individual, a program, a department, or a committee of a

ASA Honors Program Invites Applications
ASA is seeking applications from exceptional undergraduate sociology majors who would like to participate in the 2019 ASA Honors Program during the ASA Annual Meeting in New York in August. The Honors Program provides undergraduate students with a rich introduction to the professional and intellectual life of the discipline.

COSSA and NHA Member Benefits and Resources
- ASA is a member organization of both the Consortium of Social Science Associations (COSSA) and the National Humanities Alliance (NHA). With those memberships comes access to benefits for ASA members.
- Headlines is a new monthly webchat from COSSA which provides members with information about the latest policy and funding developments impacting social science research. Sign up to receive COSSA e-mails and alerts, including information on how to participate in Headlines.
- NHA has a quarterly webinar series that is available to ASA members, Between Two Bookshelves. The most recent one was about how to build strong relationships with members of the new Congress. Stay tuned for future topics. Sign up at the bottom of the NHA home page to become part of NHA’s nationwide group of advocates for the humanities.
